ROYAL TUNBRIDGE WELLS ★★★★★

Zagatos Champagne Bar opens first week of March

Sometimes one instinctively knows when something is right and that's just what hotelier Chris Scragg felt when he looked at The Spa Hotel, Royal Tunbridge Wells

Chris has an excellent reputation and track record in the hospitality business, having taken over many hotels during the past 30 years. Most needed love, attention and investment and all became the best in their local market, with some being recognised with a top 200 hotels in the UK award. All this effort didn't go unnoticed with his last hotel group being awarded the "AA Hotel Group of the Year" and the RAC equivalent.

Chris's attention is now firmly focussed on turning The Spa Hotel, Royal Tunbridge Wells into the region's foremost hotel. This elegant hotel has already had most of the public areas refurbished and the new Zagatos Champagne Bar is opening in March. An Orangery is also scheduled to open in the summer.

An enhanced service ethic has been introduced alongside the upgraded facilities resulting in very favourable comments from existing and new guests, as well as the AA.

If you are planning an event or special occasion, either for business or pleasure, or simply looking to treat yourself, your family and friends, then visit The Spa Hotel and be part of its exciting transformation and journey.
